Food4Change Virgin Organic Chia Seed Oil, is a natural oil, cold-press extracted from chia seeds sourced from certified organic farms. This unrefined material is filtered and has a bright, golden-yellow color and characteristic aroma and flavor. Commonly referred to as a superfood, virgin organic chia seed oil is a popular alternative to fish oil as a source of essential fatty acids. It is an especially great option for vegetarians and vegans to obtain omega-3 & 6 fatty acids from a botanical source. It has become a popular supplement due to its naturally high level of alpha-Linolenic acid (ALA). This essential fatty acid cannot be produced by the body and must be obtained through the diet.
